

Auditions

AUDITIONS:

Once you've enter the competition, you have the chance to perform at live online auditions, viewed by millions – including reputable music producers – across the globe.

The live auditions are split into three stages, where you'll be competing with other acts to secure your place in the competition – and a chance to win awards and prizes worth up to IM Naira!

Don't sweat it - you got this

The music competition will start on the first day of the month and last for 30 days, to be announced here. During this time, you will load your music (no more than 5MB in size) through your Urban Prostar account where music fans, with registered Urban Prostar account, can listen to the tracks and vote for their favourite artist to go through to the next stage of the competition.

The ten acts who receive the most votes are invited to perform at the first live audition.

So get a move on...it could be you!

Week One - first live audition:

This is where the REAL battles begins – the top ten acts have to impress the voters and fight to secure their place in the competition as there are only five spots available in the second around.

Week Two – second live audition:

This stage of the competition gets heated up as the five acts, who survived the previous round, continue with the battle. Only three talents go through to the GRAND FINALE.

Week Three – THE GRAND FINALE:

This is the nail-biting moment when three acts go head-to-head and give a performance of a lifetime, in a bid to win the competition. Based on the music fans' votes, the winner of Urban Prostar music competition is announced on the live show and receives awards and prizes up to IM Naira!

What a way to launch your music career!
